MATTER 8: PLAN VIABILITY, DELIVERABILITY, AND MONITORING

Issue 1 - Whether the Plan is justified, effective, consistent with national policy, and in general conformity with the London Plan in relation to whole plan viability, whether it is deliverable in the Plan period, and whether there are robust arrangements for implementation, monitoring, and review.

Q185 Does the Plan have sufficient flexibility to respond to changing circumstances?

No the Plan does not have sufficient flexibility to respond to changing circumstances

Q186 Overall, is the Plan viable, deliverable, and are there appropriate arrangements for implementation, monitoring and review?

Appropriate arrangements for monitoring and review need to be strengthened by amending:

LP1: Policy 97 – Monitoring Growth Targets

Insert, as an additional key indicator that would trigger a full or partial review:

- “If demographic or behavioural data projections change, post-Covid and/or post-Brexit, indicating a weakening trend of likely future demand for housing and/or a significant change in its composition.”
