

Easy Read Agenda (24th June)

Shared Food

This week we will have a picnic and birthday cake.

Welcome

We will introduce new members.

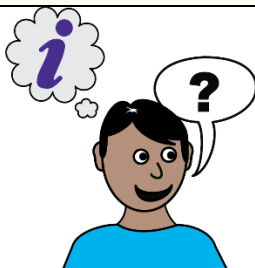

Representing Documents

We will start to write our “matters of concern” document.

This will share what we want to focus on as a group.

We will also talk about writing an introduction for our group.

Consultation Questions

We will talk about the questions we would like to ask about the Markhouse Road Day Centre consultation.

Our views will be heard by senior adult social care staff.

Staff Attendance	Group Attendance
Ash; Casey	9

Agenda	Task/updates	Responsible	Completed
Discussing the matters of concern document.	The “matters of concern” document is an idea put forward by a resident to compile and present the group’s main concerns and talking points. Ash started to format these concerns into a formal document by asking the group to expand on their main concerns. The group’s discussion involved focus on people who are receiving care being able to share their preferences and be heard. They gave examples such as food preferences and adults in supported living being given a 9pm bedtime.	Ash will start to write the matters of concern document with these points at the forefront. This will be a live document which residents can view and add to. Ash will do some research into the best way that a live document can be shared by the group without sharing resident contact information.	Ongoing
Discussing the Markhouse Road consultation.	The group discussed the Markhouse Road consultation and shared their concerns about people with learning disabilities not receiving enough day opportunity support. This is in preparation for a senior member of staff attending the group during the consultation period. They came up with a list of questions they would like to ask about the consultation process and the support offering. This has been written up in draft form.	Ash will share the questions with the group for editing and adding to. When the group sign-off on the questions, Ash will share this document to Andrew Knox. He will pass this on to the staff member who will be attending the group to talk about the consultation.	Ongoing

